The Song of the Cradle.
Bye, bye! Hope rises high There's a sweet little cradle Hanging up in the sky; A dear little life that is Coming to bless;
Two soft chubby hands
That will not rest;
Pure little soul winging Down from above;
A darling to care for,
A baby to love.

One of the greatest agencies which enlighten Science has discovered to relieve motherhood from excessive suffering is the
"Favorite Prescription" devised by Dr.
R. V. Pierce,
chief consulting physician of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y.

This wonderful "Prescription" imbues the entire nervous system with natural, healthy vitality; gives elastic vigor to the delicate organism specially concerned in motherhood, and makes the coming of baby entirely free from danger and almost free from pain.

"I wish to state that I have used Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription with very good results," writes Mrs. Katie M. Annis, of Hudson, New Hampshire. "I had been in poor health for over four years and had been twice in the hospital. My husband brought some of your 'Favorite Prescription,' and it has carried me easily through my last two confinements. We are now blessed with two healthy children, and I am sure your medicine has done me more good than all the other treatment I have ever received."

BAD HEADACHES generally arise from bad stomachs. Foul breath, bitter taste, coated tongue, constipation or belching of gas, are common symptoms though not all present in every case. To cure, take small doses, only one or two each day of Dr. Pierce's "Pleasant Pellets," the "Original Little Liver Pills," first put up by him over 40 years ago. One or two a laxative, three or four cathartic.

NIP IT IN THE BUD.
First Appearance of Dandruff a Forerunner of Future Baldness.

That such is the case has been conclusively proven by scientific research.
Prof. Unna, the noted European skin specialist, declares that dandruff is the buried-out cuticle of the scalp, caused by parasites destroying the vitality in the hair bulb. The hair becomes lifeless, and, in time, falls out. This can be prevented.

Newbro's Herpetide kills this dandruff germ, and restores the hair to its natural softness and abundance.
Herpetide is now used by thousands of people—all satisfied that it is the most wonderful hair preparation on the market to-day.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamp for sample to The Herpetide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Agents.

Two Dyspeptics

If you are too fat it is because your food turns to fat instead of muscle—strength.
If you are too lean the fat producing foods that you eat are not properly digested and assimilated.

Lean, thin, stringy people do not have enough Pepsin in the stomach, while fat people have too much. Be sure and not enough Saccharine.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

contains all the digestive juices that are found in a healthy stomach, and in exactly those proportions necessary to enable the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all foods that may be eaten. Kodol is not only a perfect digestant, but it is a reconstructive, tissue building tonic as well. Kodol cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Palpitation of the Heart and Constipation. You will like it.

Digests What You Eat

Rests the stomach, rebuilds the tissues and gives firm flesh.

Dollar bottle holds 7½ times as much as the trial, or 60 cent size.

Prepared at the Laboratory of Dr. W. F. C.
Chicago, U. S. A.

Murder Mystery.

The Wilkesbarre, Pa., authorities are searching for the missing head of a body found yesterday morning in an effort to solve the first murder mystery of that kind which has baffled the police of that place in sometime. The body, that of a well-developed man, was found near Cork lane, seven miles from Wilkesbarre, yesterday morning, and the police have many reasons for believing the murdered man was a victim of the Black Hand Society, which has been terrorizing Italians of Pittston and vicinity for some time. The body looks like that of an Italian, and the murder was clearly not for robbery, as seven dollars, some cigars, a 32-caliber revolver and a couple of gold rings were in the pockets, but there was no scrap of paper or anything else which might lead to identification. The head had not been hacked off, as the cut about the neck was as clean as if made with a sharp butcher knife. The body was placed prominently on a culm bank near the roadside, and was discovered by the first workmen going to the Cork and Bottle Colliery. It had been placed there between 4 o'clock and daylight, as it remained still 4 o'clock, and the clothes were dry. The police believe that the head was thrown down one of the several mine openings in the vicinity and are now searching for it. For some time a reign of terror had existed among Italians in that vicinity. Numerous Black Hand Society letters have been received threatening death unless money was paid for protection. Several people who received the letters have moved away and others threatening with death are guarding themselves carefully. A few weeks ago Joseph Castilini, who defied the society, was murdered at midnight, being shot from ambush. Attempts were made on two others and it is believed that the present murder is the work of the same men.

Nan Patterson in New York.

Nan Patterson is back again in New York, having returned temporarily to the scenes of the most severe and trying period of her whole life. She is stopping in a downtown hotel, the name of which is not disclosed. In an interview yesterday she declared that her short career in "The Romance of Panama," with which company she came off the road last week, has not been the finish of her stage life by long odds, and that she is now merely resting preparatory to a further venture. "I never realized that women could be so uncharitable," said the actress. "To say the least, it wasn't nice of them. Why, it has almost made me lose my faith in human nature. Those women were professing Christians, too, and yet they tried in every way to arouse prejudice against me. That is not a Christian spirit, as I understand it. If I had been turned into the gutter they would not have cared. They would not try to help or lift up one of their own sex who might be in direst trouble. Is it any wonder I am glad to get back to New York for a while? Those who may have seemed to be pursuing me in my trials were only doing their duty. The thousands of others supported me. That's why I bore it so well, but those women!"—Nan shuddered—"they seemed all alike, to be governed by cruelty and inhumanity.
I never thought much about those things before, but I've done a lot of thinking about it lately, I can tell you. I cannot understand why professed Christians forget the quality of mercy and of charity."

Plot to Blow Up Ship.

A dispatch to the London Telegraph from Tokyo says that while the Japanese were conveying the surrendered battleship Orel some of the Russian officers and sailors behaved disgracefully. Capt.
Yunick was lying in his bunk, seriously wounded. Ten engineers plotted to explode the ship's magazine. They fired a fuse under the magazine near the stern.
When it was found by the Japanese a disorderly scene occurred. Eight of the ring leaders were immediately shot. This was the reason the Orel was taken to Maizuru instead of Sasebo, as was intended. The correspondent asserts that the reported barbarity of the Russians in throwing overboard their wounded is exaggerated. It was done without the knowledge of the officers. While the vessel was being taken to Japan, about twelve sailors, unable to bear their wounds cried to their comrades to save them from pain by killing them, and in the absence of Japanese escorts the Russians on board remonstrated, and the captain of the Orel was greatly agitated by the cruelty and mutiny of his crew. He apologized to the Japanese. His death thirty minutes before the Orel reached Maizuru was accelerated by these painful incidents.

Children Burned to Death.

Yesterday afternoon on the Strand, near New Hampshire avenue, Atlantic City, two children—one a lad of seven years and the other a child of four—were burned beyond recognition, and the remains were identified only by shreds of clothing. The elder of the victims was Ordney Delaney, son of O. J. Delaney, vice president and general manager of the Wharton Fisheries Company, of Philadelphia, and the other was William

Children Burned to Death.

Jeffries, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Jeffries, a widow residing at Atlantic City. The children left their homes about 2 o'clock and took with them a hatchet with which they cut into a jetty on the beach. They were beneath the cedar brush, hidden from view, when the fire started. It burned for an hour before a squad of firemen came on the scene and used sand in smothering it. While turning over the ashes to stamp out the remaining sparks Foreman Stephany discovered one of the skulls, without any flesh on it, in the debris. Turning over the sand the charred remains were uncovered. It is supposed that the children started the fire in the cavity they dug into the jetty, and that it is a fire to their clothing and smothered them.

Given $5,000 for a Broken Nose.
A jury in the Circuit Court, in Jersey City, yesterday gave a judgment for $5,000 damages to Freda Lippert, a young woman of Union Hill, against Charles L. Peters, the son of a wealthy brewer, for injuries alleged to have been sustained in an assault by Peters. Miss Lippert three years ago sued Peters for breach of promise, and got a verdict for $15,000 damages. The judgment was satisfied. Since then the pair seemed to have renewed their friendship, being on good terms until the incident on which the suit was based occurred. Miss Lippert alleged that while she and the defendant were in a music hall in Union Hill, Peters struck her in the face, and that a diamond ring on his finger made a cut on her face, and that her nose was broken. She claimed to have been permanently disfigured by the blow.
Peters alleged that the young woman had a ring belonging to him and had refused to give it up. The plaintiff denied that she had any ring that was the property of Peters.
